but couldn't stay long since weather reports called for snow in N. Y. State Jerry's brother-in-law, Fred Gummoe, who was at last year's reunion is in bad shape, doesn't know Crystal nor anyone else, so that is very sad.

Now for my morning know-it-all. Diane Grisby called me to learn if her mother was home, for her twin had tried yesterday and again this morning, to get her mother, and had called Diane who called 80 Cen. center and I just relayed that message.

My last was a call from Endwell N.Y. and I had a long chat with another of my special boys. I had mentioned that he wanted to get information about his grandfather who is buried in Maplewood, so want him to have one of your copies, and he will get it when he comes to see his mother. So you see my life isn't exactly routine.

Gertrude stayed with me until Sat. It was a big lift for me to have her
